FUND PORTRAIT

The Phileas strategy builds a bridge between traditional stock markets and digital assets. The diversification of passive and active Phileas strategies profits from rising and decreasing markets.

- Investment in statistically undervalued cryptocurrencies due to strong correlations with bitcoin on a daily basis.
- Investment in top 5 cryptocurrencies representing more than 70% of the global crypto market providing long term returns.
- Investment into established digital asset exchanges through purchase of currencies issued by the exchange.
- Passive income using coins returning a periodically reward such as project shares and proof of stake coins.
- Crypto future shorting to gain from falling and rising markets.
- Investment into blockchain related stocks.
